"Think of all the men who never knew the answers

think of all those who never even cared

Still there are some who

ask why, who want to know, who dare to try.

Every now and then we meet

that kind of man,

here he comes again . . ."

We began the year
with
tradition,

and settled
into
daily routine

and he watched with us

Andy was back
to lead us in his final year as President

As a dream

became a reality

as past dreams

had become a reality.

For the first time

Men were housed in their own dorm.

And North Adams State

took on different proportions.

As we each submerged ourselves in our own particular brand of work and campus life engulfed us, winter, with its many problems was

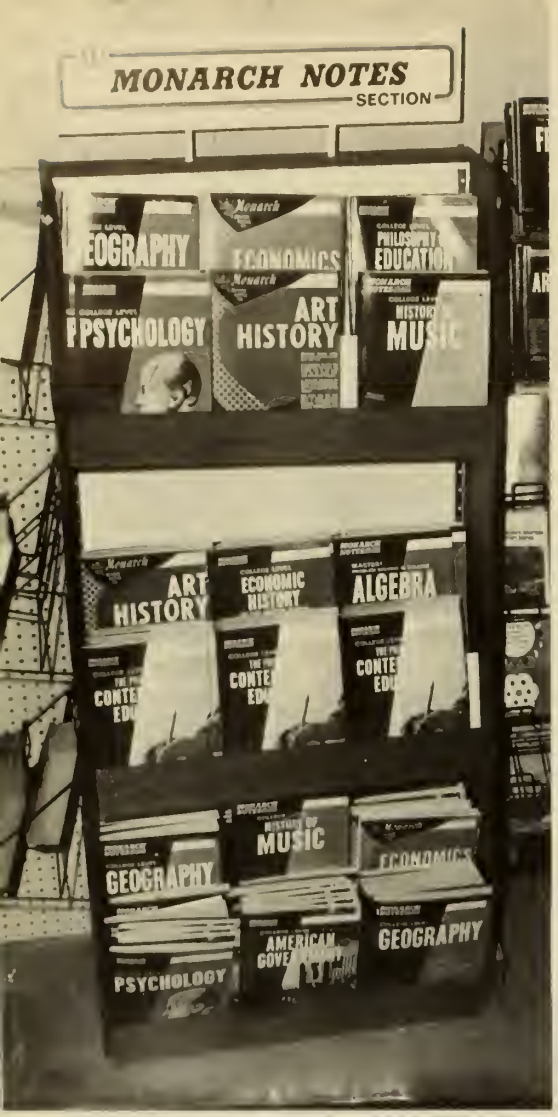
upon us.



undaunted by winter,

work,

and doldrums

with thoughts of

spring in mind

we manage to find
peace

in the beauty that surrounds us, and make a
carnival out of winter.

North Adams State welcomed

Kind Alfred College exchange members, and for a brief week new faces were seen across the cafeteria tables.

With Spring

came families

Parents and friends

and of course,

fashions

As Spring grew near

our thoughts and attentions were drawn to many things

We had said goodbye to student teaching and books

but there was

one more goodbye,

A goodbye and farewell to our

President, Andy Flagg

it was a sad time and

a happy time

other moments of nostalgia

were felt during the Spring play "The Glass Menagerie"

As we SAT BACK

checked the mail,

and awaited jobs

others busily

prepared and

arranged

senior events

Beginning the End

On Cap And Gown Day

. . . Through

Banquet

And Finally

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 20, 1968

Dear Ronald, Bruce and Brian:

The President thanks you very much for inviting him to the informal Christmas Party you are having on December 22d. While he cannot send an acceptance because of other commitments, the President is grateful to you for thinking of him and sends you his best wishes.

Sincerely,

James R. Jones
